Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice Appoints Director of Clinical Services

(Moorestown, NJ) Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice announced today that Liz Lovett, RN, MSN of Pemberton Township, NJ has been named Director of Clinical Services, and will direct all activities for the organization's clinical home care department. Ms. Lovett will oversee a department staff of over 225, including clinical managers, visiting nurses, therapists and home health aides.

A graduate of William Paterson University, with a Masters Degree in Nursing Administration from Widener University, Ms. Lovett has been employed with Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice for the past seven years. She pioneered the agency's state-of-the-art tele-health program which enables home-bound patients to be safely monitored from an off-site location. She has been a practicing nurse for (more) thirty-three years, with an extensive background in home care and performance improvement.

Founded in 1904, Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice is a non-profit organization that provides home and community based health care services to families in Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties. To learn more call (856) 552-1300 or visit www.moorestownvna.org.
