Community Counseling Center of Moorestown VNA Announces Accessible Counseling Services

(Moorestown, NJ) The William G. Rohrer Charitable Foundation has awarded a grant to The Community Counseling Center of Moorestown VNA in support of the center's mission to provide counseling to clients in need of such services, regardless of their ability to pay. The grant will provide psychotherapy and counseling services at The Community Counseling Center to adults, teens and children residing in South Jersey who meet the financial criteria. Residents of Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties who are uninsured or underinsured are encouraged to contact The Community Counseling Center for more information.

The Community Counseling Center of Moorestown VNA serves adults, teens and children, and provides a wide range of therapeutic interventions. Counseling and treatment includes, but is not limited to, services for those coping with addictions and substance abuse, anxiety and stress, anger management, behavioral issues, and depression.

Moorestown Visiting Nurse Association recently opened the new community counseling center at 300 Harper Drive, Moorestown in response to the rapidly growing need for counseling services in South Jersey.

The Community Counseling Center of Moorestown VNA is open Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm, and evenings by special appointment. To inquire about eligibility for accessible counseling, or to make an appointment, call (856) 380-1070.

Founded in 1904, Moorestown Visiting Nurse Association is a non-profit home and community based healthcare provider serving families in Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties.
