Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice Community “Welcome Day Fair” 9/29

WHAT: The staff and volunteers of Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice welcome all members of the community to visit the grounds of their offices in Moorestown for a “Welcome Day Fair.” A fun and appropriate event for families, grandparents, adults, and children.

Activities will include:

- Free blood pressure screenings, nurses on-hand providing information on home care and hospice services
- A preview of the new Community Counseling Center of Moorestown VNA (opens 10/1)
- Opportunity to meet job and volunteer recruitment team
- Children’s craft activity, soft pretzels and soft drinks (limited quantities)
- PHOTO OP: Mayor Kevin Aberant of Moorestown will perform an “official” ribbon cutting at 1pm.
- Modeling of original nurses uniform from early 1900’s

WHEN: Saturday, September 29, 12 noon to 3pm. Rain date Sunday, September 30.

WHERE: Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice
300 Harper Drive
Moorestown, NJ 08057
(Located at the corner of Pleasant Valley Avenue and Harper Drive, just off route 38, east of the Moorestown Mall)

WHY: A non-profit organization, Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice is pleased to present this public opportunity to learn about home care, hospice and counseling services available to the residents of Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties.
