NEWS RELEASE

Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice Tees Off 2010 Benefit Golf Tournament

July 13, 2010

(Moorestown, NJ) J. Douglas Plasket of The Dunhour Agency, Inc., Haddonfield, and Dr. Kevin Saluck of Allcare Medical, Marlton, have accepted the roles of co-chairmen for the 2010 Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice (VNA) Benefit Golf Tournament. Together they head a committee of community and staff volunteers to plan and support the 106 year-old non-profit organization's 15th annual event.

The 2010 Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice Benefit Golf Tournament will be held on Tuesday, October 5 at Riverton Country Club. The event features brunch and dinner, and contests and prizes throughout the day including a $10,000 Money Putt. The full day's activities are available at a cost of $250 per golfer. To participate in the event, please contact Louise Busciacco at (856) 552-1300 or busciacco@moorestownvna.org. Proceeds from the golf outing benefit patients of the charitable home care, hospice, counseling and wellness programs of Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice.

“Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice plays a vital role in maintaining the health and wellness of the South Jersey community,” Plasket explained, “Dr. Saluck and I are honored to support the mission of this essential organization that has reached out to care for thousands of our neighbors for over a century.”

Founded in 1904, Moorestown Visiting Nurses & Hospice is a non-profit organization that provides homecare, hospice, private duty, counseling and community wellness services to families in Burlington, Camden and Gloucester counties.
